

ARCHDIOCESE OF BOSTON
66 BROOKS DRIVE
BRAintree, MASSACHUSETTS 02184-3839

April 28, 2017

Dear Rev. Monsignor / Father:

Enclosed with this letter is the Remuneration Policy FY 2018 for active priests assigned in the Archdiocese of Boston and approved by His Eminence, Cardinal Sean P. O'Malley, OFM, Cap. Kindly note that the policy, enclosed with this letter, applies to incardinated priests and religious order priests serving in assignments by the Archbishop to parishes or archdiocesan institutions within the Archdiocese of Boston; it does not apply to senior priests, priests on health leave, or other priests of the Archdiocese who receive stipends and benefits from the Clergy Funds or other funds. I encourage you to read the enclosed document in detail and save it for future reference.

Remuneration payment schedules attached to the enclosed policy indicate the approved remuneration according to year of ordination for Archdiocesan priests participating in Social Security and for religious order priests in Archdiocesan assignments. All priests are encouraged to enroll in Social Security. Not participating in Social Security may prevent a priest from accumulating 40 quarters which is needed in order to qualify for Medicare A & B at age 65, therefore placing an increased burden on the Clergy Funds. Additionally, incardinated priests of the Archdiocese are encouraged to enroll in the RCAB 401(k) Retirement Savings Plan and receive the benefit of an employer contribution, as illustrated in the policy. Other elements of the remuneration policy for taxable and non-taxable income and benefits are explained fully in the policy.

Effective July 1, 2017, the base stipend for an Archdiocesan priest for fiscal year 2018 is $29,035 and the base stipend for a religious order priest in an Archdiocesan assignment is $26,705, reflecting an increase in both of 1.3%, based on the consumer price index for the New England area.

If you have any questions regarding the policy, please call my office at 617-746-5834.

Fraternally yours in the Lord,

ARCHDIOCESE OF BOSTON
REMUNERATION AND BENEFITS FOR ARCHDIOCESAN PRIESTS
Fiscal Year 2018

Introduction

The remuneration and benefits below are standard for any priest of the Archdiocese of Boston and any priest from another (Arch) diocese who is assigned by the Archbishop of Boston to an assignment within the Archdiocese. Any variation above or below these figures must be approved on an annual basis by the Episcopal Vicar for Clergy. For priests who are serving in two or more part-time assignments, combined remuneration and benefits are not to exceed what is allowed for in this policy. This does not include remuneration for additional ministry beyond one's official assignment[s] such as a parish priest teaching a course, a priest in special ministry assisting in a parish on weekends, or a priest invited to give an address/talk/workshop within or outside the Archdiocese, provided that the additional ministry does not have a negative impact on a priest's assigned ministry.

Please note the following Archdiocesan policies:

1. In accordance with the traditional custom, offerings to the parish may be accepted on the occasion of baptisms, marriages, and funerals.— Archdiocesan Policy Handbook p. 6315, #1
2. All gifts and offerings of the faithful at Masses and on other occasions belong to the parish, except:
 - a. Special collections ordered and authorized by the Archbishop, which are to be returned to the Pastoral Center or other agency in accord with his instructions;
 - b. The $10 stipend for a Mass which belong to the celebrant. As stated in the IRS Audit Guidelines for Ministers, stipends paid to the celebrant for masses should be reported as income and thus processed through payroll; (see #3 below)
 - c. Personal gifts, individually given, which belong to the recipient when the intention of the donor is clearly stated. — Statutes of the Archdiocese of Boston, Book V — 8.
3. As stated in the decree of the bishops of the Province, in accordance with canon 952, “the offering to be given for the celebration and application of both an announced Mass and an unannounced Mass is Ten Dollars ($10.00).” This includes a Funeral Mass or Nuptial Mass. Canon 951 permits a priest to accept only one Mass stipend per day, except on Christmas and All Souls Day up to a maximum of three. When pastoral necessity requires a priest to celebrate more than one Mass per day to which an intention is joined, the priest is to donate those stipends to the purpose prescribed by the Ordinary which in the Archdiocese of Boston, is for the Formation of Candidates for the Priesthood – Canon 951-1.
4. Modest and reasonable Christmas and/or Easter bonuses may be accepted from the parish as an expression of gratitude to priests (including the pastor himself). While giving pastors flexibility in this area, the value of such bonuses should be reflective of those given to other members of the staff. Funds for any bonuses may not be taken from the Christmas or Easter collections, which belong to the Clergy Funds, but may be drawn from parish/institution funds. All bonuses should be paid through payroll, documented in parish/institution records, and reported in gross income, as stated clearly in the IRS Audit Guidelines for Ministers.
5. The ownership, operation and maintenance of an automobile are the sole responsibility of the individual priest and not of the parish/institution/agency to which he is assigned.
6. Since July 1, 2013, parishes have been on a common pay period for priests assigned to the parish. The parish where the priest was assigned as of the last day of the month is responsible to pay the priest for the month. Remuneration for each priest will be paid in arrears. Note that while the Priest Remuneration

Policy expresses remuneration as a monthly amount, priest stipends may also be paid on a bi-weekly basis.

The above policies are those followed for all audits of parishes, institutions and agencies. They will also be made available any time the Archdiocese is asked by the IRS and/or Commonwealth to provide information due to the tax audit of any individual priest.

TAXABLE INCOME

Remuneration

I. Base Stipend:

The base stipend for an Archdiocesan priest for fiscal year 2018 is $ 29,035 effective July 1, 2017. [According to policy, the increase each fiscal year is equivalent to any increase in the consumer price index as reported by the U.S. Department of Labor for the greater Boston area in the year prior to fiscal year. If no increase, or a decrease, is reported in the consumer price index, priests' remuneration will not change for the upcoming fiscal year. The consumer price index for New England rose by 1.3% for the year ending November 2016 thus the base stipend will increase 1.3% in July 2017 over last year's amount.] See appendix.

II. Professional Allotment:

Each priest is responsible for his professional ministry expenses such as routine mileage, parking, tolls, and public transportation related to ministry; study weeks, workshop days and continuing education programs; publications, books, professional dues, clerical clothing and vestments for personal use; and days of recollection and spiritual enrichment programs except the Archdiocesan Convocation and the annual retreat [see below]. These ministry expenses are covered by the $6,000 professional allotment portion of the Archdiocesan priest's remuneration.

III. Seniority Increment:

The annual seniority increment is $100 a year. All priests ordained 0-10 years receive a ten year increment ($1,000), with the increment beginning to build at eleven years and capping at fifty years.

Please Note:

All priests are to enroll in Social Security. Not participating in Social Security may prevent a priest from accumulating 40 quarters which is needed in order to qualify for Medicare A & B at age 65 and therefore place an increased burden on the Clergy Funds.

Enrolled priests pay the total 15.3 percent Social Security tax on their income. The remuneration includes a supplement to assist with Social Security cost, and it is included as part of the base stipend since it is taxable for both Federal Income and Social Security taxes. There is a separate "Archdiocesan Priest Remuneration Payment Schedule" for priests "not participating in the Social Security Program." Remuneration for incardinated priests that do not participate in Social Security is reduced by 25 percent. To obtain a copy of this payment schedule for priests not participating in the Social Security Program contact the Episcopal Vicar for Clergy.

Each priest is to notify the parish or institution to which he is assigned as to whether or not he is part of the Social Security program.

In turn, pastors/administrators/supervisors are to notify the Executive Director of the Clergy Funds in writing of all priests not participating in the Social Security Program. The Clergy Funds office will assess parishes/institutions for the 25 percent difference. This difference is sent by the parish/institution to the Clergy Funds to assist with the greatly increased cost of health care needs for priests not eligible for Medicare.

Automobile Insurance

The parish or institution to which a priest is assigned will pay the first $750 annually for automobile insurance, with the priest himself paying the balance. The priest must submit a copy of his auto insurance bill to secure reimbursement. Priests not assigned to a parish or Archdiocesan institution are not eligible for auto insurance assistance.

A priest who is assigned to a parish or Archdiocesan institution in one of the following areas designated by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts as a high insurance area—Boston, Brockton, Chelsea, Everett, Lawrence, Lowell, Lynn, Revere and Somerville—and pays $1,450 or more annually, may request an additional amount of compensation for the cost of his insurance from the parish or institution to which he is assigned, according to the following scale:

High Insurance Area Scale:

Total bill $1,450 to $1,550	... $850 paid by parish/institution
Total bill $1,551 to $1,650	... $950 paid by parish/institution
Total bill $1,651 to $1,750	... $1,050 paid by parish/institution
Total bill $1,751 to $1,850	... $1,150 paid by parish/institution
Total bill $1,851 to $1,950	... $1,250 paid by parish/institution
Total bill $1,951 to $2,050	... $1,350 paid by parish/institution
Total bill $2,051 and over	... $1,450 paid by parish/institution (maximum payment)

This compensation for auto insurance is taxable income for Federal, State and Social Security taxes and must appear on the W-2 form at the end of the year.

Priests are encouraged to participate in the automobile insurance program offered through the Archdiocese of Boston. If you would like information on this program contact Joseph McEnness, Executive Director of the Office of Risk Management at (617) 746-5740 or email Joseph_McEnness@rcab.org.

Room and Board

The fair market value for room and board remains at $600 per month. This amount is $7,200 annually and is taxable to the individual priest for Social Security purposes only.

The parish or institution to which the priest is assigned provides room and board.

NON-TAXABLE INCOME/BENEFITS

Retreat

The parish or institution to which a priest is assigned will pay up to $750 annually for a priest's retreat. These amounts include the fee paid directly by the parish/institution to the institution sponsoring the retreat and reimbursement for travel expenses up to the annual limit. Priests not assigned to a parish or Archdiocesan institution are not eligible for this retreat benefit. A priest is entitled to up to 8 days for a retreat annually. The retreat days do not carryover from one year to the next, if not used. "Each diocesan priest is to make a spiritual retreat every year. If a priest wishes to make a retreat at a time and place other than the retreats scheduled by the Archdiocese, he is to inform the Vicar General/Moderator of the Curia of his plans in writing." — Statutes of the Archdiocese of Boston, Book II — 17, Canon 276.

Priest Convocation(s)

The parish or institution to which a priest is assigned is to pay the cost for the Archdiocesan priest convocation(s).

Continuing Education

It is the expectation of the Church that all priests participate in ongoing formation. This includes regular meetings with a spiritual director, annual retreat and continuing education. This expectation is outlined in the documents Pastores Dabo Vobis and the Basic Plan for the Ongoing Formation of Priests by the United States Bishops. Part of the $6,000 professional allotment is to help priests cover the cost of continuing education.

Those in their first 5 years of their priesthood are expected to participate in the Cardinal's program of Ongoing Formation. The cost for this is covered by the parish where the priest is assigned. The priest is entitled to 5 days away from his assignment each year to participate in ongoing education.

Resources for Parish Ministry

It is expected that all priests assigned to parish collaboratives will be given the necessary tools for ministry. This includes a cell phone, office, computer and a credit card for ministry related purchases. These are to be provided by and paid for by the parish to provide the tools necessary for the priests to carry out his pastoral ministry. Each priest is responsible for maintaining these items in good working order and ensuring their security and safe-keeping.

When a priest is reassigned these items are to be returned to the parish or collaborative as they remain the property of the parish that purchased them. Equipment that is intended for personal use should be purchased directly by a priest.

Vacation Time

A priest is entitled to one month of paid vacation time each year. Each priest in consultation with their pastor or supervisor is to ensure coverage during this absence. The parish or institution to which a priest is assigned is responsible to pay the priest while on vacation. Vacation time is an annual allotment that does not carry over if unused. — Statutes of the Archdiocese of Boston, Book II — 51, Canon 533.2.

Moving Expenses at the Time of Transfer

The receiving parish is responsible to assist with the moving expenses. An exception would be for a retiring pastor for whom the parish would assist his departure as a token of gratitude.

The parish can reimburse a priest up to $800 maximum while the priest covers the remaining amount from his professional expense.

Guidance on Visiting Priest

Pastors may give an offering to a visiting priest for assisting at a parish to which he is not assigned to celebrate a mass. The suggested offering is $100 and would be considered taxable income. This would include the $10 for an intention mass and if applicable transportation costs.

Medical Insurance

The parish or institution to which a priest is assigned pays the Clergy Funds medical insurance assessment. The annual assessment for fiscal year 2018 will remain at $17,640.

An incardinated priest who is assigned, with the permission of the Archbishop, to a non-archdiocesan institution will either receive medical insurance from his employer, or the employer or the priest himself will pay the Clergy Funds medical insurance assessment.

Parish priests are eligible for Medicare at age 65 and should enroll in Medicare. For a priest working in a parish or who recently transferred to a parish with less than 20 employees, Medicare A & B then becomes the Primary insurance for medical expenses. Clergy Funds Tufts Health Plan becomes the Secondary insurance which will cover all other approved medical expenses and prescriptions beyond Medicare.

The parish or institution to which an active priest at age 65 qualifies for Medicare, based on the number of employees, is assigned pays the Clergy Funds medical insurance assessment of $16,381.20 and the remainder of $1,258.80 will be reimbursed to the priest for the Medicare Part B payment.

Non-incardinated diocesan priests assigned by the Archbishop of Boston to an archdiocesan assignment may be insured through the priest's home diocese with the parish or archdiocesan institution to which he is assigned reimbursing the home diocese for the actual cost (up to $17,640 annually), or, if such coverage is not available, may, if approved, be insured through the lay-employee health plan of the Archdiocese of Boston, with the parish or archdiocesan institution paying the premium. Religious priests are provided for in the section of policy pertaining to them.

Retirement Funding

An incardinated priest who is assigned, with the permission of the Archbishop, to a non-archdiocesan institution will make an annual contribution to the Clergy Funds Retirement Trust, in the amount determined by the Clergy Funds Trustees from time to time, either through his employer or by himself directly, unless he is enrolled in a retirement or pension plan through that institution and as a result will not be eligible for retirement benefits from the Clergy Funds. Examples of such retirement or pension plans are priests who qualify for retirement benefits as a result of service as a chaplain; active military duty, VA Hospital, state prison, general hospital or university.

Incardinated priests assigned to locations within the Archdiocese are eligible to participate in the RCAB 401(k) Plan. Each eligible priest who makes contributions (either through Roth or pre-tax deferrals) will receive a matching employer contribution in an amount equal to 100% of the first 3% of compensation contributed, plus 50% of the next 2% of compensation contributed. To receive the full 4.0% employer contribution, the eligible priest must contribute at least 5.0% of his own eligible compensation to the 401(k) Plan effective January 1. All wages (priest stipend, Mass stipends, bonuses, etc.) are considered 401(k)-eligible effective January

1, 2016. Imputed income and non-taxable reimbursements are not considered eligible wages. Because all eligible priests are being encouraged to contribute this minimum amount, for budget purposes, an amount of 4.15% of payroll wages should be used for the 401(k) retirement plan. The employer contribution amounts will be reviewed annually. See appendices for examples of contribution levels for the 401(k) plan. Information regarding priest participation is available on the Catholic Benefits website at:

<http://www.catholicbenefits.org/401k/index.htm> and then select RCAB 401\(k\) Plan Priest Highlights.

Personal Property Insurance

A priest of the Archdiocesan of Boston serving in an assignment within the Archdiocese is provided $20,000 of personal effects insurance through the Archdiocese [at no cost to the priest]. All individual personal items valued at $1,500 or more should be inventoried and sent to the RCAB Risk Management Department. Please contact the RCAB Risk Management Department for further details.

REVIEW

This policy will be in force for fiscal year 2018 and reviewed annually thereafter unless rescinded or amended by the Archbishop.

Any variation above or below these figures must be approved on an annual basis by the Episcopal Vicar for Clergy. For priests who are serving in two or more part-time assignments, combined remuneration and benefits is not to exceed what is allowed for in this policy. The retreat days do not carryover from one year to the next if not used. — Statutes of the Archdiocese of Boston, Book II - 17, Canon 276.

Priest Convocation(s)

Continuing Education

It is the expectation of the Church that all priests participate in ongoing formation. This includes regular meetings with a spiritual director, annual retreat and continuing education. This expectation is outlined in the documents; Pastores Dabo Vobis and the Basic Plan for the Ongoing Formation of Priests by the United States Bishops. Part of the $4,800 professional allotment is to help priests cover the cost of continuing education.

Those in their first 5 years of their priesthood are expected to participate in the Cardinal's program of Ongoing Formation. The cost for this is covered by the parish where the priest is assigned. The priest is entitled to 7 days away from his assignment each year to participate in ongoing education.

Each priest is responsible for maintaining these items in good working order and ensuring their security and safe-keeping.

When a priest is reassigned these items are to be returned to the parish or collaborative as they remain the property of the parish that purchased them. Equipment that is intended for personal use should be purchased directly by a priest.

Guidance on Visiting Priest

Pastors may give an offering to a visiting priest for assisting at a parish to which he is not assigned to celebrate a mass. Typically, such a stipend falls in the range of $75 to $125 and would be considered taxable income. This would include the $10 for an intention mass and if applicable transportation costs.

Medical Insurance

The parish or institution to which a priest is assigned pays the medical insurance premium. A religious order priest may be insured through his religious community with the parish or archdiocesan institution he is assigned to reimbursing the community for the actual cost of the medical insurance up to $17,640 annually. If such coverage is not available, a religious order priest may, if approved, be insured through the lay-employee health plan of the Archdiocese of Boston, with the parish or archdiocesan institution paying the premium.

Retirement Benefits

Funding for retirement benefits are generally provided to religious communities through the Christmas and Easter collections of the parishes in the Archdiocese staffed by the religious community. When a priest is assigned to a parish or archdiocesan institution other than one staffed by his religious community, his community shall be entitled to receive $300 annually from the parish or the archdiocesan institution to which the priest is assigned.

Priests not incardinated in the Archdiocese of Boston do not qualify for retirement benefits provided by the Archdiocese of Boston.
